

On 26 June 2009, Ankang plant-won a prize for excellence in the "Ankang Cup" health and safety production contest which was jointly held by the General Labor Union of Xunyang County and Xunyang Administration of Work Safety Bureau.

Health and Safety production has always been one of the West China Cement's top concerns. This latest Award to Ankang plant is recognition of our continuous efforts towards safety management and we will continue to make every effort to create a safe production environment.

