

The Belt Conveyor of Xixiang Plant Was Put into Operation

On 17 Oct., the 3.7 kilometers-long belt conveyor of Xixiang Plant was successfully put into operation, indicating that another significant progress was achieved on Xixiang Project.

The distance between the quarry and plant is markedly shortened and the limestone transportation cost and production cost are thus reduced greatly.