

WCC Signed the Strategy Cooperation Agreement with Intelligence Research Institute of Building Materials

In the morning of July 04, 2017, signing ceremony on strategic cooperation framework agreement was held successfully between WCC and Intelligence Research Institute of Building Materials. Chairman, Mr. Zhang Jimin & CEO, Mr. Ma Weiping from WCC attended the signing ceremony.

President of the party committee, Mr. Diao Minyou, from Intelligence Research Institute of Building Materials visited WCC's exhibition hall and energy monitoring center before attending the ceremony.

Mr. Diao Minyou and Mr. Zhang Jimin made an important speech after ceremony, Mr. Diao Minyou analyze the current situation of cement and looked forward to the development prospect of cement. He said special cement has a great market in future with the implementation of ocean engineering, it is necessary to research the special cement and get the competition for market opportunities, we believe that both parties can work together for special market in China so that realize social and economic benefits.

Mr. Zhang Jimin said technology innovation is the development of the fundamental way for cement enterprises, our cooperation will promote the technology research and development work of special cement, the strategy cooperation is significant.

Finally, Mr. Diao Minyou and Mr. Ma Weiping signed a strategic cooperation framework agreement, it marks cooperation between both parties to a new height and bring new vitality for cement research.