

Half-Year Reviewing Meeting of WCC was held in Yili of Xin Jiang

Half-year reviewing meeting of WCC was held in Yili city of Xin Jiang Autonomous Region on July 10 and July 11, Chairman Mr. Zhang Jimin and CEO Mr. Ma Weiping of WCC present at the meeting.

CEO Ma Weiping made the half-year reviewing report on behalf of management team, he not only gave an introduction on task completion of sale, waste heat power generation, half-year profits and other management targets, but also analyzed existing problems of first half years and arranged important work in next six months from ten aspects, meanwhile, he required all staff to face the problem and took measures in order to ensure all target can be complete this year.

Chairman Mr. Zhang Jimin made an important speech at the end of meeting; firstly, he explained why the half-year meeting was held in Xin Jiang and emphasized an important work of the second half years from ten aspects. He also pointed out that there is increasing intense competition in cement field, all staff should has a sense of mission and crisis to take “make one more WCC” as target, and can full participation in the industrial chain resource integration. Take team construction as key work to realize WCC’s sustainable healthy development. Finally, he put forward higher requirements of future development plan and talents team construction, and called on all staff can take talents construction as the first priority; take enterprise as platform to realize mutual development of enterprise and individual.

This half-year meeting has special meanings which summarizes the WCC’s achievement of the first half years, shows the existing problems and draws up work measures of the second half years, especially reach a common for future development and make a good foundation of WCC’s future development.