

WCC Signed Strategic Cooperation Agreement with Yonyou Network

In the morning of Sep 15, WCC signed strategic cooperation agreement with Yonyou network, vice director Ma Hongni from Yonyou network and CEO Ma Weiping from WCC present the ceremony.

Vice director Ma Hongni thank WCC for this opportunity and she said: as the first software supplier in Asia and pacific area, Yonyou keep exploring and developing Intelligent manufacturing project, she believes that Yonyou network has strength to complete the cooperation project and make WCC to be a information benchmarking enterprises by cooperation.

CEO Ma Weiping said: in order to speed up the informatization construction of WCC and follow the current large enterprise development trend, group attaches great importance to the informationization deployment on the function of group control and automatic production. This cooperation is an important measure to construct information with the help of Yonyou's advanced science and technology strength, at last he hopes the project could be completed successfully by both parties' sincerely cooperation.