

CEO Ma Weiping Attend the Large Cement Enterprise Leaders Roundtable

On 2nd April, 2018, China's large cement enterprise leaders roundtable was held in Tianjin which was organized by China Cement Association and president Qiao Longde works as the conference chairman. There are 19 enterprise leaders attended the conference including the CEO Ma Weiping from WCC.

Conference with eliminating backward production capacity, optimizing the structure and the allocation of resources, strengthening industry self-discipline, improving the efficiency and quality of development as theme, on the basis of reviewing the achievement last year, all attendee discussed the common and prominent problems existing in the development industry, clarified the work focus and direction of association and large cement enterprise in 2018. The delegate to agree that opening the high quality development new stage of cement industry by eliminating backward production capacity and technology innovation, conference required all industry to continue work hand for ensuring economic ensure economic sustained growth in 2018.

President Qiao Longde made an important speech, he reviewed and analysis the achievement, experience and deficiency of 2017, clearly put forward the direction of industry development and key task in 2018.

It was the first time to attend the conference for WCC, CEO Ma Weiping made a speech related to the trend of industry development and structural adjustment and transformation & upgrading of WCC, he completely agreed on the content of meeting. WCC will take social responsibility in environment protection, safety, energy conservation and intelligent manufacturing, not only actively cooperate with government but also contribute to development of China cement industry healthy and sustainable.