
2018 Western China Industry & Education Dialogue Activity was held in WCC

July 16, 2018 Western China Industry & Education Dialogue Activity was held in WCC, CEO Ma Weiping and Secretary-general Li Jiang from National Construction Materials Vocational Education & Teaching Steering Committee, Fang Xuechu, headmaster of Shaanxi Construction Materials Industry School and other more than 80 participants attended the activity.

At the beginning, CEO Ma Weiping analysis the cement current situation and gave four suggestions for defusing overcapacity: merge and reorganization of large enterprises, adjustment criteria of 325 cement, strict will, enforcement of laws and regulations in environment protection, energy consumption, quality and so on. He has expectation for vocational college training in the situation of technical person's shortage.

Finally, WCC signed the cooperation agreement with Shaanxi construction materials industry school, training center of construction materials unions, Hebei construction materials vocational and technology collage.