
WCC held Special Cement Strategy Development & Planning Promotion Meeting

In the morning of August, Special Cement Strategy Development & Planning Promotion Meeting was held at the first meeting room in WCC's headquarter, Qiao Longde, chairman of China Construction Materials Federation and China Cement Association, Zhang Jimin, Chairman and CEO Ma Weiping from WCC and other cement experts attended the meeting.

CEO Ma Weiping welcomed all to this meeting, he said that the special cement is an essential part of cement industry which has an important meaning for promoting the technology improvement and pushing cement development healthy. WCC is dedicate to make positive contribution for innovation development of special cement with help of all expert.

Finally, Chairman Qiao Longde gave an important speech, he said that special cement must develop new market and expand market demands for better development, he also emphasize that research should has clear position and target, focus on core problem and persist in researching for special cement.

