

Social Responsibility Report of WCC Released in Hong Kong

On July 17, West China Cement (HK.2233) officially released the "2019 Social Responsibility Report". The release of this report is the fourth time that WCC has published a corporate social responsibility report since 2017.

The report reviewed the company's operation and management work in 2019 through eight chapters, including enterprise introduction, responsibility management, safety management, environmental protection, products and service, innovation development, intelligent manufacturing, harmony communities. Emphasis was also given on environmental protection and safety production management, which fully demonstrating WCC's efforts and contributions to achieve a balance between enterprise development, environmental protection and social benefits.

As a Hong Kong listed company with a high sense of social responsibility, WCC pointed out in the report: In the future, it will take the internationalization strategy as a new starting point, firmly grasp new development opportunities, and strive to rank among the world's leading building materials companies.