

West Cement held the first best worker commendation conference and calligraphy and painting exhibition

On April 30, the First Best Worker Commendation Conference and the Painting, Calligraphy and Photography Exhibition of West China Cement Limited (“WCC”) was held in Tongchuan Company., Mr. Ma Weiping, WCC CEO and Chairman of Yaobai Group, Ms. Wang Rui and Mr. Wang Fayin, Vice Presidents of WCC as well as other senior management attended the event.

At the conference, Ms. Wang Rui made an opening speech. Mr. Wang Fayin announced the commendation result. Senior management at the conference presented trophies and bonuses to the commended best workers, and Mr. Ma Weiping made an important speech.

After the conference, the participants watched the calligraphy and photography exhibition, visited the construction site of the Tongchuan 10,000-ton line, learned in detail about the project progress, development planning, etc., and expressed their deep respect for the grand construction scene and the hard work of the builders.

People is the core competitiveness of enterprise development. In the future, WCC will continue to increase echelon talent training, accelerate the creation of a high-quality labor force that meets the requirements of international development, and gather majestic driving force to promote high-quality and sustainable development of the enterprise .

